

Argos Risk presenting at
INNOVATE
2019 SAI Global Customer Conference

"How to Defraud a Company in Three Easy Steps"

MINNEAPOLIS, MN – March 5, 2019 - Argos Risk is pleased to announce Kevin Sasser, Director of Sales and Strategic Initiatives, will present at SAI Global's INNOVATE Customer Conference in Orlando March 6th. "The INNOVATE Conference is a great venue to kick-off our newly announced partnership with SAI Global," said Sasser.

With the increasing scrutiny on the risks associated with third-party vendor risk management, Argos Risk and SAI Global have been working together on an integrated solution that enables organizations to manage a holistic view of a third-party relationship. With data from Argos Risk, critical insights related to a third-party's financial viability are quickly and easily accessed from within the SAI enterprise risk management suite.

This presentation will provide best practices and current examples of why financial viability is the cornerstone of an effective third-party vendor assessment. Sasser will also share how easily financial viability can be incorporated into third-party risk management strategy.
